

i am firm opposed to the use of cellphones on commercial passenger aircraft. As a frequent flyer, I do not want to spend hours on a plane listenting to other passengers yelling into their cellphones. There is simply no good reason to allow this intrusion to occur on an airliner.